

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, - DEC. 12, 1884.

—Said Palmer your old gold and silver.
—Justice's blank forms at the CLIMAX.
—E. H. Palmer, the old reliable, for jewelry.
—For job work of all kinds call at the CLIMAX office.
—Wedding invitations and nice lines of job work a specialty.
—Captain J. M. Thomas denies having joined a Republican club.

Toll gate cards, showing rates of toll, kept in stock by the CLIMAX.
—Come and see the greatest of all—the steel and malleable iron Majestic Range.

Christmas and New Years are drawing near, and all old accounts should be settled up.

The Southern Magazine filed a deed of assignment on Monday afternoon to Peyton N. Clark.

Christmas time is morning and Palmer can furnish the most elegant presents for your friends.

Advertise with the CLIMAX, which reaches more people than any other paper published in the county.

The Majestic steel and malleable iron range is now on exhibition at Shuck-ard & Co's. You are expected to look and see it.

John C. Wood has again assumed control of the Mt. Sterling Gazette. He has stopped down and out to be seen the practice of law—EX.

Remember, when you are making up your advertising lists, that we reach the reading class of people in 1884 county as well as in Madison.

December 12 is the date for the future "Between the Acts" by Paul D. Lane, Impresario. This will be a series of theatricals and money. "Don't fail to take it in."

A stock company has been organized for the purpose of publishing the Eastern Kentucky Democrat, a weekly paper. Robert E. L. Wilson will be editor and manager—EX.

T. B. Hackett & Co. have purchased the interest of W. C. Higginbotham in the Hackett stable and will run a first-class livery and feed stable. T. B. has moved to town, call around and see him.

You are specially invited to visit our store and see a range of tin canisters, law, does better work, does more water, and will last longer than any other cooking apparatus in the world. Shuckard & Co.

We acknowledge the receipt of a beautifully executed order for 1885 from your enterprising undertaker and powder, E. H. P. Palmer. The engraving of the head is a picture of an old man, well to do in life, by Scholtz, and a work of art.

A trusty negro to the tune of Irving Johnson, sold two chickens yesterday at a dollar a piece, in the yard of the Hackett stable. When detected in the act he flourished a pistol and made his escape, according to the poultrylover. He will get a second dose in jail.

Leon Bergen, of Cleveland, this county, was stricken with paralysis recently and taken to Hot Springs, Ark., for treatment. While there he suffered a further attack and has been brought home in an almost lifeless condition. He has the sympathy of all who know him.

Cyrus Shifflet called in one day last week and renewed his subscription to the CLIMAX and directed it sent to him at Mexico, Mo., where himself and family are to move. We regret to lose such a good and intelligent business man from the county, but heartily commend him to the citizens of his new home.

The Satellite Ball at Louisville will be a grander affair than any of the previous ones. It has become an event in the social world of the State, and is looked forward to by the younger class of people with the greatest of interest. The Louisville Post says in speaking of the Mink of Honor:

"Richmond, Ky., will be represented by Miss Lash, the landlady of the hotel of Judge Barker, of this city. Miss Pratt, who is Louisville often and is very popular in local circles."

A Louisville Times special is responsible for the following from this city: "Mrs. E. L. Gentry, wife of a prominent merchant of this city, has been a great sufferer from rheumatism for five months, the pain at times rendering her unconscious. During months of these delirious spells her family was startled by the sweet singing of the unconscious sufferer, from beginning to end, of the well-known ballad, 'If you love me, darling, tell me your views.'"

Mrs. Gentry sang faithfully. Her husband and four children are gifted in music and play and sing in our local concert, but the mother has no talent whatever in that line. This is no fabrication, but, on the other hand, comes from a daughter of the family.

Heath a Farm.

Dr. Poyntz recently purchased the "Goss Bros." farm 8 miles this side of Lexington on the Lexington pike 240 acres at $50 per acre. It is said to be a good farm and well improved.

Accidental Shooting.

A negro boy, Harvey Phelps, whose father lives on the farm of Mr. Thomas, shot himself in the abdomen yesterday while handling a pistol. It proves to be a case of attempted suicide. The bullet struck a rib, and did no serious damage.

Central Trust Company vs. E. N. I. & E. R. R.

The case of the Central Trust Company vs. the E. N. & E. R. R. was argued in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati last week. The case was carried up from Judge Barr's Court at Louisville and is of much interest to persons in this locality, and will involve the payment of several hundred thousand dollars.

Circuit Court.

Little has been accomplished in our court thus far as the time has principally been taken up with the trial of E. E. Patton, who was under indictment for obtaining two certificates of stock of the Southern Lumber Co., valued at $2,000, under false pretense. This occupied nearly all of last week and resulted in an acquittal. In the case of Jesse Hutton, indicted for the murder of Matt Todd, a jury was obtained on Friday, and they took the case under advisement Monday. The jury returned a verdict yesterday morning of guilty and fixed his penalty at lifetime imprisonment. Commonwealth's Attorney B. A. Crutcher, and County Attorney J. A.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

Murdered in Cold Blood—The Assassin One of His Tenants.

David Doty, a prominent farmer and one of the newly elected Magistrates residing in the Ellison Precinct, Madison county, six miles from Richmond, was foully murdered by one of his farm hands about 8 o'clock Friday night last.

For some weeks past some person or persons had followed the practice of entering Mr. Doty's stable, taking out and riding his horses or mules. Mr. Doty had been watching for the miscreant for a few nights, and a colored man in his employ, knowing of some entertainment given him in the neighborhood, suggested that it would be well to watch the barn that evening.

Accordingly the man Kavanagh and he visited the barn about 7 o'clock and found everything all right. Mr. Doty returned to the house and spent some time in reading, and about his usual hour for retiring concluded that he would again inspect his barn, and went out alone.

This was the last time he was seen alive, as the murderer was on hands and evidently in the act of taking one of the horses, as he left his saddle lying upon the ground. Mr. Doty was shot four times, the last shot being through the head and from so close a proximity that his face was powdered blood. The negro Kavanagh hearing the sound of pistol shots went to the scene, found the body, called the name of the murdered man, and then together bore the body to the house. The prior efforts were unavailing, and suspicion resting on some negro residing on the farm, they, Mr. Doty and Mr. Taylor were arrested and lodged in jail. On the person of one of the colored men a .38-caliber revolver was found, which showed evidence of recent use. The bodies of the two men were taken to the jail, and the sheriff's men, and ex-sheriff Deatherage, and others with several deputies, they also placed under arrest the negro Kavanagh. The suspected parties being separated in the jail and diplomacy being brought to bear, began to divulge the truth, and on Sunday Will confessed fully to the crime, confessing that he had gone to the barn for the purpose of getting a mule to ride to the county gathering mentioned, and encountered Mr. Doty, who was unarmed, and demanded of him the mule which he was leading out, whereupon he furnished him, and he shot him in the abdomen. The first shot took effect in the abdomen, the next through the heart, the third after Mr. Doty had started to walk off, through the head from the back and the fourth was delivered while the murderer held the already dead man by the collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

Murdered in Cold Blood—The Assassin One of His Tenants.

David Doty, a prominent farmer and one of the newly elected Magistrates residing in the Ellison Precinct, Madison county, six miles from Richmond, was foully murdered by one of his farm hands about 8 o'clock Friday night last.

For some weeks past some person or persons had followed the practice of entering Mr. Doty's stable, taking out and riding his horses or mules. Mr. Doty had been watching for the miscreant for a few nights, and a colored man in his employ, knowing of some entertainment given him in the neighborhood, suggested that it would be well to watch the barn that evening.

Accordingly the man Kavanagh and he visited the barn about 7 o'clock and found everything all right. Mr. Doty returned to the house and spent some time in reading, and about his usual hour for retiring concluded that he would again inspect his barn, and went out alone.

This was the last time he was seen alive, as the murderer was on hands and evidently in the act of taking one of the horses, as he left his saddle lying upon the ground. Mr. Doty was shot four times, the last shot being through the head and from so close a proximity that his face was powdered blood. The negro Kavanagh hearing the sound of pistol shots went to the scene, found the body, called the name of the murdered man, and then together bore the body to the house. The prior efforts were unavailing, and suspicion resting on some negro residing on the farm, they, Mr. Doty and Mr. Taylor were arrested and lodged in jail. On the person of one of the colored men a .38-caliber revolver was found, which showed evidence of recent use. The bodies of the two men were taken to the jail, and the sheriff's men, and ex-sheriff Deatherage, and others with several deputies, they also placed under arrest the negro Kavanagh. The suspected parties being separated in the jail and diplomacy being brought to bear, began to divulge the truth, and on Sunday Will confessed fully to the crime, confessing that he had gone to the barn for the purpose of getting a mule to ride to the county gathering mentioned, and encountered Mr. Doty, who was unarmed, and demanded of him the mule which he was leading out, whereupon he furnished him, and he shot him in the abdomen. The first shot took effect in the abdomen, the next through the heart, the third after Mr. Doty had started to walk off, through the head from the back and the fourth was delivered while the murderer held the already dead man by the collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice will be meted out by the court which is now in session. Taylor had been warned by Kavanagh that he might give him a dose of the cold collar, and was through the head, the powder burning his temple.

Much credit is due the jailer John W. Myers for wrestling the truth from the lips of the wretch. Speedy justice

